

Mix: Types 1 & 2

Task 1: Put in the correct form of the verb in brackets.

1. If you like mountains, you _____ (must, visit) Colorado.
2. If you _____ (go) to Pennsylvania, you would meet some Amish people.
3. You _____ (walk) over the Golden Gate Bridge, if you visited San Francisco.
4. You _____ (see) the Times Square, if you fly to New York.
5. If you _____ (travel) round the north of the USA in winter, you should wear warm clothes.
6. You would die if you _____ (drive) through the Death Valley without anything to drink.
7. If you walked on the 'Walk of Fame' in Los Angeles, you _____ (might, meet) a celebrity.
8. _____ (run) as fast as you can, if you are attacked by an alligator in the Everglades.
9. You _____ (rent) a car, if you wanted to travel from the Pacific to the Atlantic coast.

Task 2: Complete the conditional sentences by putting the verbs into the correct form.

1. If Tracy _____ (have) a mobile phone, she _____ (phone) all her friends, but unfortunately, she doesn't have one.
2. I _____ (be) very angry with Nick if he _____ (forget) my CD again.
3. If the boys _____ (win) this match, their coach will invite them to a barbecue.
4. If you don't read these articles, you _____ (not, know) the facts about Africa.
5. You _____ (get) very wet if you _____ (walk) in this rain. Luckily, you want to stay inside.
6. The engine _____ (not, start) if Ben _____ (connect) these two cables, but as a mechanic he knows what to do.
7. If he has time, he _____ (buy) her some sweets.
8. Maria _____ (play) in the school orchestra if she practised the trumpet more often.
9. We won't fetch something to drink if Jim _____ (not, bring) some sandwiches.
10. If he _____ (carry) the rucksack, I'd pull the suitcase.

Mix: Types 1 & 2

Task 1: Put in the correct form of the verb in brackets.

1. If you like mountains, you ___ must visit _____ (must, visit) Colorado.
2. If you ___ went _____ (go) to Pennsylvania, you would meet some Amish people.
3. You ___ would/could walk ___ (walk) over the Golden Gate Bridge, if you visited San Francisco.
4. You ___ will see _____ (see) the Times Square, if you fly to New York.
5. If you ___ travel _____ (travel) round the north of the USA in winter, you should wear warm clothes.
6. You would die if you ___ drove _____ (drive) through the Death Valley without anything to drink.
7. If you walked on the 'Walk of Fame' in Los Angeles, you ___ might meet _____ (might, meet) a celebrity.
8. ___ Run _____ (run) as fast as you can, if you are attacked by an alligator in the Everglades.
9. You ___ could/should rent ___ (rent) a car, if you wanted to travel from the Pacific to the Atlantic coast.

Task 2: Complete the conditional sentences by putting the verbs into the correct form.

2. If Tracy ___ had _____ (have) a mobile phone, she ___ would phone _____ (phone) all her friends, but unfortunately, she doesn't have one.
3. I ___ will/would be _____ (be) very angry with Nick if he ___ forgets/forgot _____ (forget) my CD again.
4. If the boys ___ win ___ (win) this match, their coach will invite them to a barbecue.
5. If you don't read these articles, you ___ don't know _____ (not, know) the facts about Africa.
6. You ___ would get _____ (get) very wet if you ___ walked _____ (walk) in this rain. Luckily, you want to stay inside.
7. The engine ___ wouldn't start ___ (not, start) if Ben ___ connected ___ (connect) these two cables, but as a mechanic he knows what to do.
8. If he has time, he ___ will buy _____ (buy) her some sweets.
9. Maria ___ would play _____ (play) in the school orchestra if she practised the trumpet more often.
11. We won't fetch something to drink if Jim ___ doesn't bring _____ (not, bring) some sandwiches.
12. If he ___ carried _____ (carry) the rucksack, I'd pull the suitcase.