

Adjective & Adverb

Task 1: Adjective or Adverb. Complete the sentences.

1. She could _____ (hard) understand his voice.
2. They stood _____ (near) at the waterfall.
3. The teacher spoke with a very _____ (high) voice and was _____ (high) amused about the errors his students had made.
4. Tim hasn't been to the disco _____ (late), however last time she came home _____ (late).
5. Tom's new girlfriend is very _____ (friendly) and she always speaks _____ (friendly).
6. _____ (hard) anybody new that Lisa always works _____ (hard) to achieve her goals.
7. Lia isn't a very _____ (good) dancer. Her sister dances _____ (much) _____ (good). However, _____ (good) singer in her family is her mother Tara. She can sing very _____ (good).
8. Mr. Meyer seemed to very _____ (angry) because he shouted at us _____ (angry).
9. She _____ (near) died when a car crashed _____ (terrible) in her bike. The car came _____ (extreme) _____ (quick).
10. Dave is a _____ (good) student, but his friend Kevin is even _____ (good) than him. He is the _____ (intelligent) person Dave knows. Nobody learns grammar and vocabulary _____ (easy) and _____ (fast). Nobody studies _____ (successful). He is _____ the best _____ (good) student of his class.
11. The _____ (less) clever girl in the class is Mary. She always gets _____ (bad) marks. _____ (bad) thing is that nobody likes her. She _____ (bad) misses her only friend who moved _____ (far) away last year.
12. Did you pass your driver's license _____ (successful)? – Yes, I did. There were many people who had _____ (much) mistakes.

Task 2: Adjective or Adverb. Complete the sentences.

1. Although Carlo hadn't worked _____ (hard), he did _____ (good) English test in her class. He felt _____ (real / happy). Carlo always works in the evenings because in the afternoons it's _____ (pretty / noisy) in his garden. However, he likes the nature very _____ (much). The birds often sing _____ (wonderful) and there are _____ (huge) apple trees. He often sits on an _____ (old) bench below and dreams about becoming _____ (famous) tennis player in the world. He knows that he can play _____ (fantastic). But at the moment he can't play because he got _____ (terrible) injured during his last match. The doctor checked his _____ (right) leg _____ (careful). It was _____ (complete) broken. Now he has to wear a cast which is very _____ (tight) and take some medicine which taste _____ (absolute / terrible). _____ (sad) enough, he can't play for _____ (much) than three months.
2. The history of Great-Britain was _____ (real / war-ridden) in the beginning. Different tribes fought against each other _____ (terrible) for _____ (quite) a _____ (long) time and weren't able to live together _____ (peaceful). There was _____ (hard) a king who wasn't killed in a _____ (horrible) way because the monarchy did _____ (little) to rule the country _____ (just). The peoples who lived in England were _____ (total / different) from each other, but because the tribes were all _____ (fair / strong), the times were _____ (fair / hard) and _____ (hard) any tribe was _____ (successful) to rule over the others. After some centuries, there wasn't a tribe that fought _____ (successful) than another so, _____ (consequent) the people got _____ (tired) of fighting and killing each other and became _____ (peaceful) than in former times. Not all tribes were _____ (instant / free) but _____ (much) people could walk around _____ (free) and there were _____ (much) people who seemed to be _____ (complete / happy). The situation in the country got _____ (good) and the people lived together _____ (fantastic).

Adjective & Adverb

Task 1: Adjective or Adverb. Complete the sentences.

1. She could _____ hardly _____ (hard) understand his voice.
2. They stood _____ near _____ (near) at the waterfall.
3. The teacher spoke with a very _____ high _____ (high) voice and was _____ highly _____ (high) amused about the errors his students had made.
4. Tim hasn't been to the disco _____ late _____ (late), however last time she came home _____ late _____ (late).
5. Tom's new girlfriend is very _____ friendly _____ (friendly) and she always speaks _____ in a friendly way _____ (friendly).
6. _____ Hardly _____ (hard) anybody new that Lisa always works _____ hard _____ (hard) to achieve her goals.
7. Lia isn't a very _____ good _____ (good) dancer. Her sister dances _____ much _____ (much) _____ better _____ (good). However, _____ the best _____ (good) singer in her family is her mother Tara. She can sing very _____ well _____ (good).
8. Mr. Meyer seemed to very _____ angry _____ (angry) because he shouted at us _____ angrily _____ (angry).
9. She _____ nearly _____ (near) died when a car crashed _____ terribly _____ (terrible) in her bike. The car came _____ extremely _____ (extreme) _____ quickly _____ (quick).
10. Dave is a _____ good _____ (good) student, but his friend Kevin is even _____ better _____ (good) than him. He is the _____ most intelligent _____ (intelligent) person Dave knows. Nobody learns grammar and vocabulary _____ easier _____ (easy) and _____ faster _____ (fast). Nobody studies _____ more successfully _____ (successful). He is _____ the best _____ (good) student of his class.
11. The _____ least _____ (less) clever girl in the class is Mary. She always gets _____ bad _____ (bad) marks. _____ The worst _____ (bad) thing is that nobody likes her. She _____ badly _____ (bad) misses her only friend who moved _____ far _____ (far) away last year.
12. Did you pass your driver's license _____ successfully _____ (successful)? – Yes, I did. There were many people who had _____ more _____ (much) mistakes.

Task 2: Adjective or Adverb. Complete the sentences.

1. Although Carlo hadn't worked _____ hard _____ (hard), he did _____ the best _____ (good) English test in her class. He felt _____ really happy _____ (real / happy). Carlo always works in the evenings because in the afternoons it's _____ pretty noisy _____ (pretty / noisy) in his garden. However, he likes the nature very _____ much _____ (much). The birds often sing _____ wonderfully _____ (wonderful) and there are _____ huge _____ (huge) apple trees. He often sits on an _____ old _____ (old) bench below and dreams about becoming _____ the most famous _____ (famous) tennis player in the world. He knows that he can play _____ fantastically _____ (fantastic). But at the moment he can't play because he got _____ terribly _____ (terrible) injured during his last match. The doctor checked his _____ right _____ (right) leg _____ carefully _____ (careful). It was _____ completely _____ (complete) broken. Now he has to wear a cast which is very _____ tight _____ (tight) and take some medicine which taste _____ absolutely terrible _____ (absolute / terrible). _____ Sadly _____ (sad) enough, he can't play for _____ more _____ (much) than three months.
2. The history of Great-Britain was _____ really war-ridden _____ (real / war-ridden) in the beginning. Different tribes fought against each other _____ terribly _____ (terrible) for _____ quite _____ (quite) a _____ long _____ (long) time and weren't able to live together _____ peacefully _____ (peaceful). There was _____ hardly _____ (hard) a king who wasn't killed in a _____ horrible _____ (horrible) way because the monarchy did _____ little _____ (little) to rule the country _____ justly _____ (just). The peoples who lived in England were _____ totally different _____ (total / different) from each other, but because the tribes were all _____ fairly strong _____ (fair / strong), the times were _____ fairly hard _____ (fair / hard) and _____ hardly _____ (hard) any tribe was _____ successful _____ (successful) to rule over the others. After some centuries, there wasn't a tribe that fought _____ more successfully _____ (successful) than another so, _____ consequently _____ (consequent) the people got _____ tired _____ (tired) of fighting and killing each other and became _____ more peaceful _____ (peaceful) than in former times. Not all tribes were _____ instantly free _____ (instant / free) but _____ most _____ (much) people could walk around _____ freely _____ (free) and there were _____ many _____ (much) people who seemed to be _____ completely happy _____ (complete / happy). The situation in the country got _____ better _____ (good) and the people lived together _____ fantastically _____ (fantastic).