

Verbs with two objects

Task 1: What are the sentence parts? Write the names in the boxes below the sentence (subject / verb / direct object / indirect object).

Sara

gave

Tom

a ticket for a game.

Ms. Hoover

bought

her husband

some new trousers.

Tessa

sent

a nice letter

to her boyfriend.

They

cooked

a nice meal

for their friends.

She

lent

her

her pen.

We

didn't say

anything

to Tim and Tessa.

Task 2: Sara und Tessa are shopping at the moment. They are trying on some new clothes. Choose the right answer from the words in brackets.

Sara: "Can you give _____ (to me / me / for me) this yellow shirt, please?"

Tessa: "Of course, it fits perfectly to your new blue skirt. If you buy it, can you lend it _____ (me / to me / for me) next weekend for Tom's party?"

Sara: "Sure, that's no problem."

Tessa: "I would like to have a new pair of blue shoes. My parents bought these _____ (for me / to me / me) three years ago and I don't like them anymore."

Sara: "OK! What about those over there? They look nice."

Tessa: "Oh, yes. Can you get them _____ (to me / for me / me)?"

Sara: "Oh, no! Look! The shop assistant is giving _____ (to them / for them / them) to another woman. We were too slow."

Tessa: "That's a pity! However, can you give _____ (to me / for me / me) those dark-blue ones over there. They look nice, too."

Sara: "Sure! I will fetch them _____ (to you / for you / you)."

Tessa: "Thanks! But I am hungry and thirsty."

Sara: "So am I. Let's buy _____ (us / to us / for us) something to eat and to drink."

Tessa: "Damn it! I haven't got enough money. Can you lend _____ (for me / to me / me) some?"

Task 3: Bring the sentence parts into the correct order. Sometimes you need to add a "to" or a "for" to the sentence.

1. the new grammar / explains / Ms. Hoover / the class / often

2. me / a nice story / yesterday / my father / yesterday

3. a chocolate cake / Ms. Meyer / made / Lisa / last weekend

4. Tom / it / is sending / her

Verbs with two objects

Task 1: What are the sentence parts? Write the names in the boxes below the sentence (subject / verb / direct object / indirect object).

Sara

gave

Tom

a ticket for a game.

subject

verb

indirect object

*direct
object*

Ms. Hoover

bought

her husband

some new trousers.

subject

verb

*indirect
object*

direct object

Tessa

sent

a nice letter

to her boyfriend.

subject

verb

direct object

*indirect
object*

They

cooked

a nice meal

for their friends.

subject

verb

direct object

*indirect
object*

She

lent

her

her pen.

subject

verb

*indirect
object*

direct object

We

didn't say

anything

to Tim and Tessa.

subject

verb

direct object

*indirect
object*

Task 2: Sara und Tessa are shopping at the moment. They are trying on some new clothes. Choose the right answer from the words in brackets.

Sara: "Can you give ____ me ____ (to me / me / for me) this yellow shirt, please?"

Tessa: "Of course, it fits perfectly to your new blue skirt. If you buy it, can you lend it ____ to me ____ (me / to me / for me) next weekend for Tom's party?"

Sara: "Sure, that's no problem."

Tessa: "I would like to have a new pair of blue shoes. My parents bought these ____ for me ____ (for me / to me / me) three years ago and I don't like them anymore."

Sara: "OK! What about those over there? They look nice."

Tessa: "Oh, yes. Can you get them ____ for me ____ (to me / for me / me)?"

Sara: "Oh, no! Look! The shop assistant is giving ____ them ____ (to them / for them / them) to another woman. We were too slow."

Tessa: "That's a pity! But can you give ____ me ____ (to me / for me / me) those dark-blue ones over there. They look nice, too."

Sara: "Sure! I will fetch them ____ for you ____ (to you / for you / you)."

Tessa: "Thanks! But I am hungry and thirsty."

Sara: "So am I. Let's buy ____ us ____ (us / to us / for us) something to eat and to drink."

Tessa: "Damn it! I haven't got enough money. Can you lend ____ me ____ (for me / to me / me) something?"

Task 3: Bring the sentence parts into the correct order. Sometimes you need to add a "to" or a "for" to the sentence.

1. the new grammar explains Ms. Hoover the class often

____ Ms. Hoover often explains the new grammar to the class. _____

2. me a nice story yesterday My father yesterday

____ My father told me a nice story yesterday. _____

3. a chocolate cake Ms. Meyer made Lisa last weekend.

____ Ms. Meyer made a chocolate cake for Lisa last weekend. _____

4. Tom it is sending her

____ Tom is sending it to her. _____